Brief Description

Keshet Italia launches the first-ever European Jewish Queer Pride - Shabbaton, a three-day Shabbaton, from the 9th to the 11th of June in Rome, to improve the visibility of LGBTQ+ Jews.

The events a celebration of Jewish LGBTQ+ visibility and pride, bringing together European Jewish LGBTQ+ organisations and leading Italian and European institutions from the Jewish and LGBTQ+ communities to reflect and establish synergies in the fight against antisemitism and anti-Queer discrimination. During the event, we will discuss how to generate innovative responses to fight multiple discrimination – both within Jewish communities and LGBTQ+ movements – and intersectional discriminations faced by LGBTQ+xJews.

Through a series of participatory, peer-to-peer activities and cultural moments, the event represents the possibility for participants to foster an inclusive society by understanding the importance of belonging to a community.

The European Jewish Queer Pride - Shabbaton represents a significant gathering to assert LGBTQ+ Jews claims.

Objectives

- To bring together a diverse audience of people from different backgrounds, mainly from Jewish and LGBTQ+ communities, to consolidate the identity and improve the visibility of these experiences;
- To continue promoting an inclusive society, embracing Lesbians, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Non-Binary, Queer people and allied;
- To enhance the Jewish LGBTQ+ movements' relationship with Jewish and LGBTQ+ communities with a particular focus on Youth Movements;
- To generate innovative responses to multiple discrimination (both within Jewish communities and LGBTQ+ national movements) and intersectional discrimination faced by Jewish+LGBTQIA+...+JewishxLGBTQIA+... people.
